Reviewer's Comment for Publication:

Overall, the paper is a well-structured and relevant contribution to its field. With improvements in literature integration, data interpretation, and minor refinements in writing, it could be even stronger. Strengthening the conclusion by linking findings to broader implications would enhance its impact.

Reviewer's Comment / Report

Strengths:

- Clarity and Structure – The paper is well-organized, with clear sections that help guide the reader through the research.
- Relevance of the Topic – The chosen research topic is significant and contributes to the academic field.
- Use of Evidence – The paper includes references and supporting data to strengthen the arguments.
- Methodology – The research design is appropriately selected to address the research question.

Weaknesses:

- Gaps in Literature Review – Some key references or recent studies might be missing, which could enhance the discussion.
- Data Analysis – The interpretation of results could be more detailed, explaining the implications of findings further.
- Grammar and Formatting – There may be minor grammatical errors or inconsistencies in formatting that need correction.
- Conclusion Depth – The conclusion could be more impactful by summarizing key takeaways and proposing future research directions.
