The article highlights some interesting aspects of the The Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage) Act, 2019 while demonstrating the deficiencies of the bill. The arguments are convincing with theoretical as well as practical cases suggesting the bill is flawed. Drawing from a wide scholarship, both western as well as Islamic the author/s have shown that the bill lacks procedural justice criteria.

Detailed Reviewer's Report

Strengths:

1. Clear argumentation: The arguments are lucid and very well laid out. The authors have justified their arguments with a well-researched literature.
2. Headings and subheadings are clear and well justified.
- 3.

Weaknesses and areas for improvement:

1. Use more citations. While the authors have quoted many scholars and legal experts, but they are not properly cited. Kindly provide proper references for all the works that have been cited in the article.
2. Try dividing this section "MUSLIM WOMEN (PROTECTION OF RIGHTS ON MARRIAGE) ACT, 2019: NORMATIVE CHALLENGES AND MODERN LEGAL THEORIES" as it is very large. Use subheadings if necessary.
3. Give a detail about the legal questions, debates in civil society both argued against the bill in supreme court as well as in India. Try writing under a separate heading.

Overall Assessment:

The article highlights some interesting aspects of the The Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage) Act, 2019 while demonstrating the deficiencies of the bill. The arguments are convincing with theoretical as well as practical cases suggesting the bill is flawed. Drawing from a wide scholarship, both western as well as Islamic the author/s have shown that the bill lacks procedural justice criteria. Revise the paper in the light of the above suggestions.
