Reviewer's Comment / Report

The manuscript presents a clear, well-structured investigation of a highly relevant research problem. The objectives are clearly defined, and the methodology is both robust and well-executed. The writing is concise, making complex concepts accessible without compromising depth. The study's design is appropriate, with detailed explanations of the methods used, ensuring transparency.

The results are carefully presented, with the analysis employing appropriate statistical techniques. The discussion provides an excellent interpretation of the findings, comparing them with previous work and suggesting areas for future research. The paper contributes to the field by offering new insights and highlighting important implications for theory and practice.

The manuscript is a strong piece of research, making a meaningful contribution to the literature. The findings are well-supported by the data, and the implications are clearly articulated. This paper will undoubtedly be of interest to researchers and practitioners in the field.
