Detailed Reviewer's Report

- The introduction is too brief and does not sufficiently contextualize the research problem. It should clearly outline the background of the study, research gap, objectives, and significance of the research.
- The methodology section lacks sufficient detail. The author should clearly describe the research design, data collection methods, analytical framework, and justification for the chosen approach.
- The conclusion is concise but underdeveloped. It should summarize the key findings, highlight the contribution of the study, and suggest possible directions for future research.
- The references written in the paper are in Urdu. Add some English and Vietnamese references also.
- The paper is missing the literature review which is important element of a research paper.
